2014 VA County Loan Limits

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Loan Guaranty program does not set a maximum amount that an eligible Veteran may borrow using a VA-guaranteed loan. Lenders may make loans to Veterans greater than the maximum county loan limit; however, lenders may require Veterans to make a downpayment for the amount borrowed in excess of the applicable county loan limit.

The following county loan limits must be used to calculate VA's maximum guaranty amount. These limits apply to all loans closed January 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014. VA loan limits are based on county median home values reported by the Federal Housing Administration. These values are the basis for which VA calculates limits for our program. For 2014, some limits increased, some stayed the same and a few decreased.

The maximum guaranty amount for loans over $144,000 is 25 percent of the 2014 VA county loan limit shown below. Veterans with full entitlement available may borrow up to this limit and VA will guarantee 25 percent of the loan amount.

If a Veteran has previously used entitlement that has not been restored, the maximum guaranty amount available to that Veteran must be reduced accordingly. Lenders should check their own investor requirements regarding guaranty amounts and downpayments. Questions about VA loans in a particular county may be directed to the VA Regional Loan Center of jurisdiction.

NOTE: For all counties not listed below, the limit is $417,000.
